By Dr Hanudin Amin By Dr Hanudin Amin* Excerpt :Earlier muslim scholars have supported the finding that a consumer ' s religiosity has a significant effect on consumption in a muslim context (e.g. Elgari, 1990). Someone who approaches an Islamic bank for a mortgage is endowed with a certain level of iman. Bendjilali (1995) believes that choosing interest-free financing is blessed by Allah (SWT), hence it is rewarded.

Staff: Hanudin Dr Hanudin Amin. According to Bank Negara Malaysia, the total Islamic deposits were amounted to RM340, 695.8 million in 2011 and RM494, 738.3 million as at the end of 2014. This exponential growth suggests that Islamic deposit sector is gaining importance and acceptance by bank customers in the country. Owing to increased competition and market changes in the banking sector, Islamic banks need to come up with creative products that can uphold their existing customers and enticing new ones.

Author: Hanudin Amin, Abdul Rahim Abdul Rahman Year Published: 2016 ISBN: 978-967-0521-67-1 Islamic Banking: An Introduction to Islamic Accounting is written with the purpose of sensitizing readers to the need of accounting according to the al-Quran and Sunnah, Islamic accounting concepts, and accounting for Islamic financial transactions. The knowledge and skills gained from the course is able to add value to the students in order to prepare themselves for their career advancement. It is expected that, this topic of Islamic accounting will pave the way of disseminating the complete Islamic finance discipline to those students. Objectively, the book plans to communicate the pivotal contents of Islamic accounting both theoretically and practically. With these skills, the students are hoped to apply them into the real world once they have graduated. The book provides comprehensive coverage of Islamic accounting ranging from introduction, salam accounting to zakat accounting which are interesting to learn. The intended audience of the book are undergraduate and postgraduate students who love to learn Islamic banking not only from its concepts but also towards the applications of the concepts.

Mengapa kita perlu menerima segala keputusan yang berlegar dalam ruang sosial tanpa menggugat atau sekurang-kurangnya menyemak relevansinya? Adakah kita kekurangan karangan-karangan yang mencerahkan dan menguak minda masyarakat ataukah kita sudah menjadi lemah, layu dan longlai akibat dibelasah teruk oleh wacana hegemoni yang mendominan? Naskhah ini tidak bertugas untuk menjawab persoalan-persoalan ini dengan kemas dan mapan, namun berperanan untuk membangkitkan pertanyaan-pertanyaan penting yang terencil dan digelapkan. Mengungkit-ungkit permasalahan setempat dan memikir-ulang peranan orang muda dalam berhadapan dengan "tirani baru" yang boleh berbentuk wacana kekuasaan, agama dan budaya. Ketidakberesan ini cuba digembar-gemburkan dan berharap agar masyarakat mula terlibat dalam misi pemberdayaan dan mencerahkan masyarakat. Kritik sosial dan sanggahan-sanggahan yang tersedia dalam naskhah ini menuntut kritik balas dan gugatan yang lebih kemas. Ini fungsi wacana yang perlu dihidupkan semula. Dan, inilah peranan orang muda. Sekalipun masyarakat menghukumnya derhaka.

In the contemporary practice of Islamic banking, everyone is given an equal chance to understand, feel and appreciate it accordingly. In fact, everyone is an Islamic banking scientist if he intends to establish a cogent knowledge pertinent to the Islamic banking industry and shares it with everyone else in his social circle. The industry is opened to everyone provided Shariah principles and existing Shariah governance are meticulously observed. In response to this concern, this book provides sufficient guidance at least for undergraduate students to observe these requirements and who really intend to advance their career in the industry and contribute significantly. This book provides a short but comprehensive overview pertinent to Islamic banking and finance where historical perspectives are brought into play. The coverages of the book are provided as follows: Islamic banking deposits after the introduction of the Islamic Financial Services Act 2013 (IFSA), new concepts of Islamic investment accounts that key differences between Islamic fixed deposits and Islamic investment accounts, Islamic financing concepts including some interesting discussions pertaining to Islamic debt policies presently implemented in some Islamic banks in Malaysia, Islamic automobile financing, Islamic personal cash financing, Islamic home financing, historical background of Islamic window and Islamic subsidiary in Malaysia, Islamic pawn financing and how it is distinct compared with its conventional peer; and financing evaluation and pricing from the context of Islamic banks. Some calculations are provided to expose students with an improved understanding of the Base Rate and how it is related to Islamic financing products.

This book highlights the impacts of COVID-19 on the global economy, at a time when the world economy has experienced large demand and supply shocks. To limit the transmission of the corona virus, all governments shut down production, restricted movement of people, etc, which led to severe curtailment in demand, and disruptions in supply chains all over the world. The COVID-19 pandemic has dragged the world economy into an abrupt and unforeseen recession. According to IMF estimates, world GDP will fall by over 3 percent due to the outbreak of this pandemic - the steepest slowdown since the Great Depression of the 1930s. The ILO has predicted a loss of about 25 million jobs due to this pandemic. Emerging markets will lose at least 2.4 percent of their GDP in 2020 alone. Loss in global travel revenue due to COVID-19 is estimated at USD 810.7 billion. Financial markets have been badly hit and about USD 83 million has been pulled out of developing markets since the outbreak of COVID-19. The list of sectors impacted by the COVID-19 outbreak, is endless All governments have announced stimulus packages comprising a mix of fiscal and monetary measures, but it is difficult to predict how quickly businesses will respond to these measures. The papers in this book, which are the proceedings of an online global conference, have attempted to analyze and summarize the thoughts of academicians on these vexed issues.

Islamic finance is one of the fastest growing segments in the global financial market. However, while the principles and concepts of Islamic finance date since the founding of Islam, it is only recently that widespread application and practice has developed. Further, while predominately Muslim countries obviously fuel the growth of Islamic finance world-wide, both Islamic and conventional financial institutions in countries with smaller Muslim populations, including the UK, the US, and in Europe, are increasingly providing Shariah-compliant financial products and services. The recent global financial crisis especially has encouraged customers and regulators in many countries to consider Islamic finance as an alternative to conventional financial systems. This book compiles recent and cutting edge research in Islamic finance, including Islamic banking, and provides a useful starting point for discussion and policy formulation for academic, industry and government researchers, practitioners, and students alike throughout the world. Contributors to the volume include academics with Islamic finance expertise and practitioners and policymakers with a long history of involvement in the sector from across four countries. This mix ensures that the book has comprehensive coverage of many of the issues involved, is highly accessible to the professional and non-professional reader alike, and that it will serve as an authoritative source of information on Islamic finance for years to come.
